INCREASE ACCESSIBILITY TO ARTS EDUCATION

The Multnomah Arts Center Association is working hard to increase accessibility to need-based scholarships and provide new outreach efforts throughout Portland. Your donation will help support these efforts. MACA is an all-volunteer 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that supports the vibrancy and health of MAC through fundraising and advocacy. Your gift is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

The Director's Box

Dear Friends of MAC,

As you may have noticed, PP&R is more than a little proud of the National Gold Medal Award recently earned. One reason our programs are considered excellent is due to the support that comes directly from our community members.

One recent example at MAC is extensive improvements to our ceramics and metals studios that wouldn't have been possible without the generosity of individual donors. In the coming weeks MACA will kick-off its annual capital campaign. On behalf of our board, I hope you'll consider supporting our vital efforts with a donation comfortable to you.

Thanks!

Michael Walsh, Executive Director

MAC at Art in the Pearl 2011

Multnomah Arts Center Woodturning Instructor, Jerry Harris makes tops, bowls and other treasures for fascinated audiences of all ages.

Parent & Toddler Art Classes

These classes offer a process-oriented art experience. While providing instruction in the use of art materials and techniques, our teachers guide students through the creative process in an effort to elicit and encourage each child's individual style of visual expression. Rather than simply following directions to construct prescribed art "products," children in our classes learn to trust their own creative impulses while being supported by their parent or guardian. We recommend both adult and child wear grubbies as these classes can be messy. All materials are included. Cleanup is part of visual arts classes. Once classes are full, we cannot accept extra students.

Art Adventures Ages 1½ - 4

Fascinated by shiny, sticky and gooey stuff? The joy of creative thinking and self-expression are brought to life using media such as paint, clay, collage and sculpture. Together construct projects that develop fine motor skills and enhance creative development.

Literary Arts Classes for Adults, Teens & Families

Reading & Writing Poetry Ages 18 & Up

In this workshop, we'll look at how poetry works, as writers and as readers. Students will write in response to exercises, and in response to what they read; we'll read closely one another's work, and the work of other poets both familiar and not. We'll pay particular attention to revision, exploring various approaches to this crucial process; students will pursue the poems that they write through multiple and distinct versions, expanding and focusing their sense of the possibilities of their own writing. Anyone interested in writing poetry, and motivated to write every week, is welcome.

356922 Tues. 6:30 - 9:00 pm Jan. 10 - Mar. 13 $180 [10 classes] David Abel

Right Brain Writing Ages 18 & Up

You don't have to be a writer to produce powerful and imaginative creative work. Through a series of enjoyable, illuminating exercises, right brain energy is channeled into the making of creative vignettes, word portraits, poetry, and short stories. The right brain's connection to sensation is also explored as you learn to make your writing come alive through image, metaphor, voice, and surprising language. Dreams, music, painting and poetry are used to provide inspiration. Experienced poets and prose writers as well as those who have never written before are welcome.

Memoir Writing Ages 18 & Up

Anyone can write memoir. We all have stories—young and old, rich and poor, famous and not so. Participants will use prompts and other exercises to trigger and unlock their memories, to zero in on those moments that are both rich and significant. We'll draw inspiration and craft secrets from other authors, and we'll address and put aside the inner critic, so that you may engage your creative process in a safe and encouraging environment. No writing experience necessary. All levels welcome.

READING WORKSHOP

Reading in the Rain—Performing Your Poems Ages 18 & Up

Do you wish that you could read your poems with less fear and mumbling, more energy and applause? Poets tend to be quiet observers, but the words you write can show you how to say them. This free one-day workshop will focus on strategies for performing your work, providing tools, tricks, and perspectives. We'll explore the multiple modes of performance, and consider ways to use your outside voice, engage the audience, and work in a variety of environments. Bring another poet's poem you like, and a couple of your own; be ready to move around a little, and to use a pen or pencil.

Printmaking Classes for Adults & Teens

The MAC Printmaking Program has classes for serious students and hobbyists alike to enjoy the art of the print. Each class fee covers most supplies needed for learning that technique. Students are encouraged to purchase their own printing paper, though some proof paper is provided. All courses running 6 weeks or more include studio access (times to be announced). Color ink and editioning paper are not included in open studio. There is no instruction at Open Studio—it is for students who need extra time to work on their prints.

Printmaking studio is not wheelchair accessible (stairway access only).

Collagraph & Relief Ages 13 & Up

Dive head-first into the world of printmaking with a method that is based in collage but combines drawing, painting and sculptural techniques. Collagraphs are prints made from a plate that is a collage of materials and supports, various methods of plate construction, basic and advanced inking techniques using both intaglio and relief methods, using stencils, chine collé and color viscosity techniques. Also includes some block printing. Price includes basic materials fee of $25 for ink, adhesives, and other printing materials, which is non-refundable after class begins. Students will need to provide editioning paper. Pick up materials list at office before class.

Photography Classes for Adults & Teens

Photographing Your Artwork Ages 18 & Up

With the new digital cameras and the current image enhancing techniques it is easier to photograph our artwork. Yet, digital cameras don't do miracles when it comes to exposing for the right tonalities, colors, and setting up strong compositions of our work. How to highlight our art is often a big issue. Since the instructor of this course works with many painters, sculptors, graphic artists, ceramicists and art directors, this course will be tailored to the needs of the participants. Discover all the ins and outs of setting up lighting, tuning it for the best color and perspective and deal with technical matters that are so important in realizing such images for display, websites, prints and slide shows of your fine artwork. Bring your digital camera, tripod and artwork. Having a laptop or computer at home with photo editing software such as Adobe Photoshop or Elements is highly recommended.

Jewelry/Metalsmithing Classes for Adults & Teens

The MAC Metalsmithing Program has classes for serious students and hobbyists alike to create beautiful jewelry, small hollowware and sculpture. In addition to workshops on various changing topics, classes are offered sequentially, allowing students to build their knowledge on firm foundations as they progress through the program.

- The Metal Arts Studio is equipped with:
- Metal Clay/Enameling Kiln
 - two Smith acetylene/air torches
 - one oxy-acetylene little torch
 - one oxy-acetylene melting torch
 - centrifugal caster
 - hydraulic press
 - combination rolling mill
 - dual-speed buffing arbor with dust collector
 - drill press
 - flex shafts
 - 12" shear
 - metal hand tools
 - metalsmithing/jewelry library
 - vacuum table
 - soldering ventilation system

Class prices cover tool use and basic supplies. Precious metals not included. Students are encouraged to purchase their own hand tools and supplemental supplies (e.g., silver, if the student wishes to work in that metal for a project), but it is not required. All sequential (6 weeks or more) metals class fees cover studio access. (Times to be announced). After the first class, the portion of the class fee that covers materials and lab fee is not refundable.

Jewelry/Metalsmithing I—Introduction to Fabrication Ages 16 & Up

Explore fundamentals of fabrication with nonferrous metals such as copper, brass and sterling silver. Gain experience through assignments in sawing, filing, silver (torch) soldering, polishing and basic patination. Chain-making and the elements of design will also be introduced. No prerequisite. Price includes basic materials fee of $30 which is non-refundable after class begins.

Metal Clay Trends & Techniques Ages 16 & Up

Explore the dynamic world of metal clays in all the latest forms and methods, including options in silver, gold, copper, bronze, brass and steel. Metal clay consists of microscopic particles of metal suspended in a binder to create a material that can be worked like modeling clay. The binder is burnt away and the metal particles fuse to form solid metal. Explore the versatility of this medium, building skills in designing, forming, firing and finishing. Learn how to combine materials to make mixed metals jewelry. Price includes materials and lab fee of $55 which is non-refundable after class begins. Supplemental materials will be available for purchase during class.

Textiles Classes for Adults & Teens

The MAC Textile Arts Program offers classes for children and adults including basketry, felting, knitting, crochet, dyeing, spinning and on-loom weaving. The weaving studio has over 60 floor and table looms including an AVL compu-dobby, spinning and dyeing equipment, a wide selection of yarns for purchase, and an extensive library.

During class, students have access to a weaving design software program called Fiberworks.

Textiles Studio Drop-in Policy

After the second week of class, currently registered weaving students may drop-in to the weaving studio at times other than during their registered class. A student may drop-in anytime the center is open except during certain posted times. (See posting at MAC office and/or Textiles Studio.) When weaving during another instructor's class, please refrain from asking the instructor for help, keeping your questions for the instructor in whose class you are registered.

Any time you weave other than in your registered class, please sign in and out in the drop-in book at the front office.

Access to Fiberworks software is limited to the registered class time.

PLEASE NOTE: Materials fees for all textiles classes are non-refundable after class begins.
