

Materials List /// Fall 2011

Color Theory for Watercolor Painters

Carol Humpage

- Watercolor paper, preferably Arches 140# cold press or other good paper.

▼ Watercolor paints in a palette:

- yellow
- cobalt or ultramarine blue
- warm red such as cadmium red
- cool red such as alizarin crimson or quinacridone red.

- few old magazines

- glue stick

- pair of scissors

- ruler

- water container

- paper towels or a rag

- watercolor brushes

all the usual watercolor supplies