

2019 Supply list for Nature Journaling classes MAC Jude Siegel

Supplies

Supplies can be purchased at Artist and Craftsman, The Merri Artist (online and in McMinnville) Bring this list for a student discount. Save your receipts for returns, please!

Please bring what you can, and I will discuss supplies in first class, and also let you know if what you have will work. You may email me if you have questions before you shop.

a paintbox with professional quality watercolors. It is best to make these yourself with tubes of paint. IF you do not wish to invest right now, then bring a set of PRANG watercolors, which is about $10. You can also ask me to set up a good paintbox for you, by emailing me before class.

A round watercolor brush size #10. Princeton makes a synthetic, or you can find blends. I will discuss these at class.

One full sheet of Arches 140# coldpress watercolor paper (22 x 30"). We will make a journal from this the first day of class.

Sketchbook 8.5 x 11 approx. for notes and warm up exercises

A permanent black pen

Woodless pencil #6 or #8

Kneaded eraser

Terry cloth rag (old washcloth or towel work great)

3 small yogurt cups

Small ruler

Lunch , snacks, water bottle

Please pack all this in a portable bag. We do go outside in good weather, and you will want to be able to carry your gear easily!

Good luck! Contact me if you need help. See you soon, Jude
