Suggestions for art supply stores that offer discounts!

'I've Been Framed' at 4950 SE Foster Rd. has very good bargains. For the brushes, check out the 'I've Been Framed' Store at 2819 SE Ash--hog bristle brushes are only a couple of bucks and good quality! Check out Blick's and Utrecht online as they often have coupons for discounts you can print out and bring to the store. There are often September Back to School sales.

Materials List

The materials listed with an asterisk (*) indicate materials used for the oil painting class only.

Palette:

- glass, plastic, or treated wood.

Painting medium:

- Gamblin's Neo Megilp for oils.*
- Golden's Open acrylics medium gloss or retarder for acrylics.

Brushes:

- Hog bristle flat or bright size 10 or 12, plus a two inch regular house painting brush (you can get them at Fred Meyer cheap). Bring any other brushes you like but at least have these to start.

Canvas:

Size may vary depending on your project, but should be at least a 16x20 stretched canvas.

Colors (All acrylic paint should be Golden's OPEN Acrylic):

- White (for oil Titanium-Zinc is good)
- Cadmium Yellow Deep (for oils get Gamblin brand as this color varies widely depending on brand)
- Burnt Sienna
- Ultramarine Blue
- Terre Verte*

Other colors may be added as you progress with your painting.

- Palette knife
- Low odor paint thinner (Gamsol by Gamblin is good*)
- Rags and paper towels
- Two small jars with lids (for holding solvent, medium, etc.)*
